March 2019

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
					 1 Read a Dr. Seuss book in honor of his birthday tomorrow. Talk about rhyming words.	 2 Screen blackout day! Read books, go on an outing, or play games together.
 3 Learn a word in another language and try to use it all month long.	Math 4 Make shapes with play dough or clay and encourage your child to name the shapes.	 5 Play music of different tempos (fast or slow) and move to the music together.	 6 After lunch or after dinner, lie on a blanket together and talk about the day so far.	 7 Choose a "magic word" for the day. Every time you say or hear it, do a movement—clap your hands or jump up and down for example.	 8 Read a number of bedtime stories today.	Visit the Library together 9
 10 Invite a friend over for a play date with your child.	 11 After reading a story, ask your child to retell it. Turn through the pages if that helps them remember.	 12 Have an indoor picnic—spread a blanket on the floor and eat your lunch or dinner together on the blanket.	 13 Give your child a pair of kitchen tongs and a number of objects. Encourage them to pick up the objects using the tongs.	 14 Assemble a group of stuffed animals or toys and read aloud to them together.	 15 Create a book about your child. Talk about what they were like at each year of their life. Add pictures.	 16 Talk together about what happened yesterday.
 17 Clap out the number of syllables in the names of objects around your home. (Oven—2, Recliner—3 etc.)	 18 Screen blackout day! Read books, go on an outing, or play games together.	 19 Look at a calendar together. Talk about why calendars are helpful.	 20 Act out a nursery rhyme together.	Math 21 Call your child's attention to shapes, sizes and patterns in the food that you eat.	 22 Sing a lullaby to your child tonight. (Don't worry about your voice—your child could listen to you all night!)	Visit the Library together 23
 24 Make a "Favorites" chart with categories across the top and family member's names along the side. Fill it in together.	 25 Talk to your child about what an author does. Encourage your child to write their own book.	 26 Tear up colored pieces of paper and paste them onto a plain piece of paper to make a collage.	 27 Point out and read signs that stores post to help you find what you are looking for.	 28 Make up a story about a character that has the same name as your child.	 29 Choose an animal. Write down everything you can think of about that animal. (Where it lives, what it eats, etc.)	 30 Check out a book about children around the world.
 31 Ask your child what their favorite activity was for this month. Talk about it together.
